I say a big version of that Scrin wreckage in Renegade, and make it DM or maybe make it a CTF where one end is nods area (engine room) and the front is GDIs area (flight deck or like control room). And either make the scenery outside the ship (if you look out a window or something) space or crashed landed somewhere like the dessert.... Also if you could make some alien skins for nod or w/e little treat you would like to put in [ January 28, 2003, 19:11: Message edited by: forsaken ]
