I didnt like the controller test. I put the Nod airstrip controller in the ground, the C130 flys in and drops the Harvey close to 0,0,0 but not exactly at it. thats a problem, its stuck in the river LOL. A nice size Tiberium field is at 0,0,0.(slightly larger than the one from "Under") [January 27, 2003, 10:59: Message edited by: garth8422]
