If you looked at the icon in the game they engineers are identical.They had both no patch yellow helmet.I think you should give them a better style, white is kind'a plain and boring, and a mod has to be original,the team don't have to follow every details of the game (in modeling and skinning) or it be weird sometimes.I suggest the GI/Conscript style for both of em'.
But again, you can do what you want.
