Cough Cough Breaths hard Falls over dies Around since august you say. Idea for existence was originally just me and "alkor" and we were just going to reskin all Westwood buildings and make it a Us Marines vs Axis's of Evil which we started in about July. Upon gaining better mapping skills and him better skills, we Got Lunchbox(not lunchobox) who is now lunchbroks or something to form UMM(Uber maps and Mods) This was about "August" to finish our Us Marines vs Axis Mod which was just really reskinning everything and making maps.
Eventually we came across madtone who ran a mod team of The scientist and Atlas called nova who wanted to stay small. Me and madtone talked and created "Nova mod team" The mariens vs Axis mod was put aside for now as we learned tutorial after tutorial on how to do things. Then, i started recruiting. I brought in a lot of people. Eventually i got tired of doing nothing and said Lets finish our mod, but redo everything! And the Mod Existence was born. Then we moved forums, blah blah and finally got hosted and here i am with a great mod team. Mod officially started in Mid July.
