Shut up, CyborgDC, you're not much better than the people he's referring to.----This man speaks the truth.We also don't need to see your models all the time... If you make some simple bunker, fine, that's good. Put it in your map and then give it out for download some other time.If you're going to start a map, please, finish it and don't get people's hopes up - then not finish at all.
