how can you nt beat the last mission. folow the hint. "RUN" that helps a lot. just run for it and what ever is in front of you fire at it. or even run backwards to while killing people. just keep running and don't stop. i learned that after being killed 11 times when i kept stoping to see where to go and a stupid sniper comes. you know what happens next. after that i just figured out where to go and had no problem
