Well take as much time as you want, im in no hurry, the next mod you make will be fine. Infact if you will make a Gun Ship then you mide as well not name in an ORCA Bomber. Something like O-52 Flying Fortress. Hmm...that would be soo cool. See I dont know nothing modleing, NOTHING. When I get a new computer I want to start learning, im young so I have time. Do you recomend and training programs or graphic programs I should use, or should I just go right into it and learn it like that?
