I've uploaded my mod to <http://trzmods.net> and www.cncsector.com . This is the first release and therefore does not not really have much yet. download it or give me ur e-mail so i can send it to u & read the read me.txt for more info. My LAN connectoin sux so if someone could start a server with my mod running on it so i can actually play test it i'd be very happy . If u do start a server e-mail me with the server info so i can join it & play. If u have any questions or comments my e-mail is graeme@masciuch.netNOTE::the e-mail address in the read me.txt is incorrect and my new e-amil will be in there when i release X2. sorry for any confusion this may cause.
