it's a cool idea "C&C mode were you can build your base" would be sick. How will you pay???? well when ever you kill a person a \% of the points will go to bulidings (e.g. 25\%)and you vote what and were the buliding is.And you could have a MCV but you can't move it but you can build another one to go somewere else. Also with the money for it people who really want it can put a sertian amount of money towards the building. But you can only have a sertian amount of defences in the aera around the MCV.(e.g.6 oblisks)And you can only place a buliding in the aera of the MCV so you can't have one MCV and a hand of nod outside the GDI's base.COOL HE??
