spoonyratl actually don't have a problem with the way FUD run their server at all. I'm damned if I let someone tell ME how to run the servers I pay for and maintain. I extend the same courtesy to FUD.

I wasn't trying to tell them how to run their servers. They have every right to run their servers in any way they want. I just said that most of their rules are ridiculous and retarded. I'm surprised people still play it.
