Aircraftkiller Will you negative people stop whining or is it too much for you to do what you preach?

Oh the irony. You of all people would know negativity when you saw it.

reference:

Aircraftkiller Almost all of that stuff carries the "I did this in Photoshop" and the "I made the models in five minutes" mark. I don't know why, but as you go along, most of what you do just gets worse.

VERY positive.

I thought you were ignoring me now.
