warrantohe's attacking our religion? Where? All I can see is him attacking you because you appear not to be living up to our religion's standards...

I just want to know what standards those are?

I'm a nice guy, if you ever got to know me you'd realize that I'm one of the most innocent, self respecting guys you'll ever meet. I don't curse, do drugs, have sex, or do anything else that's laid out by the Bible, just not sure where it says anything about me hanging out on a forum, or posting my opinion. Sure, there is the verse about pointing out specs in other's eyes when you've got a plank sticking out of your own, but in this scenario, I honestly couldn't have a plank in my eye simply because I'm not saying anything to anyone but ACK, and I don't do any modelling of my own, so it's simply an opinion.

If you ask me, leave religion out of it.
