mahkraFuck off and leave me be.

I wasn't aware I was forcing anything on you. If you don't like what I write, then don't reply or read it.

Quite frankly, I don't like your whiny "I'm not going to play this game" mentality, but I'm not taking offense to it, or dropping the F bomb over it.

Lastly, the ideals this country were founded on go against the attitude you are taking in this regard.

The founding fathers response to Great Britain when they felt oppressed and disagreed with the authorities was the same, but the meaning was far different.:

Goerge WashingtonFuck off and leave me be.

The only difference?

They did something about it. I would urge you to use the vote that was hard won by these very same ideals.
