ViperFUDKIRBY098I have never cared for sci fi in the extreem like this.

Human nature tends us towards revolt to the point of death when someone tries to tell us what to do. If someone told me to wear sandbags so some loser could keep up when he clearly isn't trying, I would promptly use those sandbags as a bolo.

The only thing we have ever been good at as a species is fighting.

And whining.

And stabbing each other in the back.

And taking each other's shit.

Actually, it's amazing we've survived at all.

Those are just glorious by products of our inability to leave each other alone. I kind of lumped them all into one category. It always ends up there anyways.
