yes, i saw the 2 new episodes today, they were good.

Anubis, they will bring back, someone will find the frozen corpse and he wil leave it and dial out. Bal, will be harder, if you listen carefully in the first episode of season 8, you hear one of the ambassoders say that that fleet of anubis that he sent, was very small, and that bal was taking over all of Anubis's planets and ships, so bal will be big.

the next atlantis i read up on it at gateworld.com and it says they are in the puddle jumper and they get stuck, and have 32 minuets untill the gate closes.

and yeah they like reusing actors, that was the young genral hammond. i wanna know whats happening with the tok'ra.
