wasnt the tok'ra attack but anubis and nearly wiped them out.. a few escaped and are in hiding again also i dont think they will be bothered by anubis anymore his stuck on a planet where it would seem there is no life at all so he cannot get the gate opened and soon he will get annoyed and use his powers and the ancients will come for him i would like to see what the human replicator has planned for his new robot friend replicator babys xD
