Crimson, or some other moderator, please split this at the point sw33t and I started flaming each other and move it to the hot topics forum, or whatever it is, I don't want to spam up this thread with me and sw33t arguing and having users have to search through it all to find something useful.

You know what sw33t, your right, I have no girlfriend, and I don't really care right now, I want to wait until I'm in college, I believe it is too early in highschool to start going out with girls and having sex and all that stuff, yes it would be nice, but I think it's too early, it's mainly because I am uncomfortable around girls and don't know what to say . . . Your girlfriend has brians? How interesting she has people with the name of brian . . . I know what you mean though, you meant to say brains. But then again so does pretty much everyone, so that doesn't really matter now does it.

Also, I do not yet have a job, no one will hire me until I turn 16 next year, and I can't get my drivers license until I am 16 1/2 and my parents will not drive me to my job. That is why I have come up with my own little way of making money while I wait to get a job, it's not too much, but it helps . . . (No, it's not selling lemonade). Why do you hate me, I have never done anything to you, I have tried helping you with your grammar with the whole placing commas and periods in the middle of two words, and you have listened, either that or you figured it made you look like a moron. Also I do have a life outside of these forums, and several people come to these forums every day, or just about everyday and post something, and I do not act like I know everything, if I know something I will post the solution, or get back to the person later, Yes I will show you how to modify the damage, speed, jumping stuff and all that later, but now it's 12:02 I was going to go to bed after I got water and went to the bathroom, brushed my teeth, and made sure the heater for the pool at my house was off, but then I remembered I forgot to update something on my site real quick, so I decided "What the hell, I'm already on my computer, I'll see if anyone posted something before I go sleep" and then I saw this and made this huge long post. So, you ever gonna find out my address, and come after me, and are you ever gonna do that match I proposed in your old post about the story you were writing? You also know that your contradicting yourself saying I have no life coming on these forums everyday and posting, but guess what, you're doing the same thing!
