I'm suprised no one has pointed this out yet...

mahkraYou guys apparently didn't read what I wrote.

I said THE MAJORITY don't like RenAlert. I didn't say NOBODY likes it.

Apparently you can't read what you wrote too.

mahkraKinda like how the majority of the community hates RenAlert?

You said the majority of people hate RenAlert, not 'don't like'. But since the two phrases are similar enough, and not putting you on the high ground you seem to want, you tried to rewrite history again by saying:

mahkraYou say: "Hey, people actually play it!"

I say: "Yeah, but look how many people DON'T play it. There are MANY more people playing classic Renegade than playing RenAlert. THE MAJORITY do not care about RenAlert."

So now you're claiming to have said most people don't care about Renegade Alert, instead of hating it. You are slowly attempting to change the subject to one you stand a good chance of winning, instead of standing up for what you said or admitting it was wrong and moving on after your initial statement about people hating RenAlert could not be proven at all.

I'm not sure if you backed yourself into this corner out of stupidity, or you thought you had a clever way of baiting RenAlert supporters into a trap. I'm guessing it was the former, since if it was the latter you did a piss poor job of setting off the trap and I'll give you the benefit of the doubt that you aren't incompetent. Either way, you're coming off as an arrogant moron.
