FerhagoJust so you can never open this page again.

F*&^!

People on IRC that night will understand

Lol...No, I'm using my dad's laptop right now, not the crapped-up family desktop.

I plan to have said IRC crisis resolved by tonight or so, but until then, I probably won't be able to get on because of all you mean people.

Just so everyone knows, I have already run Spybot and Adaware, each has found like 200 entries, but nothing seems to go away. Right now, my Internet Explorer is redirected through Search200.com or something, [I wouldn't try to access a link to that site if I were you] and has two added search bars [Kind of like Google Toolbar except they suck and I don't want them there.]
