1. Phone the local zoo to take it back.
 2. Take it to the vet as it would have had to also eat a leather wallet and cards.
 3. Say yes
 4. Laugh, it won't work. Unless she unplugged to wireless bit too...
 5. Given my height, she'd be on someone's shoulders probably, so I'd ask the bf if she could stop it. If she was alone, and ok looking I'd talk to her.
 6. I wouldn't touch a live goldfish
 7. Pass, never heard of it, but then why would the registration run out?
 8. Put the boot in, hard.
 9. Wipe it off, you'll never catch that bird (mind you by the sound of some people on here they carry sniper rifles everywhere)
 10. Be surprised, I got 20 for my 18th, and nothing for my 21st.
