snipbravomy age dosent matter. Its my MATURITY taht matters.

And of course with maturity comes the ability to spell and start sentences with capital letters, come back when you've finished school and ur displaying plenty by the way.

Thankyou

snipbravo

If ur 24 why dont u have a girlfriend?

Because I'm gay? Because I've had a 10 year depression? Because I don't need one? Because I'm happy enough as my own person? Because I'm a woman? Two of them are lies, you pick them because I don't care what you think of me. You are just a little scrotum who doesn't justify the effort used by your mum and the customer that shackd her up snipbravoWhy dont u go out with friends?

Ironically I answer this after a good drinking session with said non-existent friends. Renegade isn't the be all and end all to me, unlike some stupid gamekid like yourself snipbravoWHY DONT U PAINTBALL?

Because there's nowhere around here to do so, plus why fire paint at people when I have an actual lethal weapon sat about a yard away from me right now?

(resume i sat on my but for 24 years and argued with a 11 year old about an OUTDATED game on a USELESS website) that will get u a job pal.

Resume? Learn English

Come back to me when your're old enough to work. I've had more jobs than your mum's had clients.

So you're admitting to being 11 when you started by saying your age doesn't matter? Fuck off you waste of space. It's people like you who prove our stereotype of stupid americans right. If you paintball then shoot yourself in the head and do the world some good.

While we're on the subject, shall I tell the moderators about your personal offensives or should I just let them find this on their own? You have no idea who I am, and you started this whole thing. Don't get personal, I might just live across the road from you.
