npsmith82 Funny how the most active thread in the forums has been this "Doom 3" one, at 10 pages with 200+ replies... and ffs the thread isn't even related to renegade!

Just some really petty arguments/flaming between certain people, as usual, it seems like that's all that happens here...

I can't help it. If there's an argument that I have any part in or want to have any part in; I can't help but to continue it or join in.
