spoonyratOld renguard was easy to bypass. Nobody knows how to bypass the new updates, or if they do they are VERY secretive about it.
usually for a good reason and anyhows i class throwing loads of times on the PT as hampering yur team definitely if its during a game cause it goes towards the mine limit its still fun to do it at start of a cw ^^ and die and run to the explosions to see how amny times u can die before the times stop but it shouldnt be done in normal games cause of mine limit problem so he wouldve deserved a kick, even if he could argue it was start of game someone mightve loaded before him, got a credit box and started mining who knows
