Subject: [Poll] Off Topic Forum!

Just like the vast majority of this board, I think there should be an Off Topic forum added. There is almost no reason to not add an Off Topic forum. There are reasons to add one, like:

1. Adding an Off Topic Forum will keep the spam (and off topic posts) out of the other forums (these usually take up residence in the General forum)
2. This will give everyone a real place to post about stuff that isn't related to this site/forum or Renegade.
3. The [OT] prefix that is commonly found on posts in the General forum and others are annoying (and for the most part not needed, we can tell that a post is obviously off topic without the help of a stupid prefix)
4. Et Cetera

Like the American War/Politics forum, the Off Topic could be lightly moderated.

Yay or Nay!
