well first this is for Crimson:

Is the past weeks have something related to the pm i sended to u? i mean since that i saw some change (removal of flame stuff on some treads, this poll). Well keep it up, at leats you did a move but it would have been interesting to know if you readed my pm and get a feedback :/

About me, well i am neutral, most of the time i try to understand why people have a problem with something and try to do the "balance" wich is ask on both side to do something without bashing. some refered me. Yea i i am a part of reborn team but that does not make me hat or love more a mod or a team. i do respect both mod but i hate the flaming around that; well any kind of flaming is actually useless.. i dont find that a good way to discuss, express tought about someone or something.. anyway you got the idea (well i hope ) Sure i would like to be one but dunno if i would have the time :/

Finaly about my vote i agree the fact that no R.a. or Re. member should be(even if i told i would like to be one, except that i am neutral. I am not telling this because i am the only one in the two teams... IMO for R.A. team Darkblade would get my Vote but lets stay most neutral as possible) About scrumfy sorry m8 i dont know u alot. About YSLMuffin she get my vote i know her (well how she is) and what she did all those year in RenForums and i never saw her flame.. but just complaining about stop that wich i greatly undertstand. So Good luck YSLMuffin.

Peace
