Ok, seriously, this is crazy, nutz, and total BS.

Here is how its going to work.

1. Flame a thread, you get edited, and I might stop being friendly about the edits.
2. Continue a flame thread, and I will lock it.
3. FLAME a thread AND go off topic, its gone.

Simply following these three rules will keep posts open and un-edited.

If you have something to say, that isn't on topic, or about modding, take it elsewhere.

This is a MOD forum, if you have a problem with talking about modding, and anything related to modding, take a hike.
