SuperFlyingEngiHe's also saying that because of his rascist record back in the day. Look at j_ball's uninformed poster - Miller was one of the Democrats who voted No for the Civil Rights Act. Although that was maybe 40 years or so ago, so whatever. Let's not live in the past. My poster speaks the truth. For 150 years it's been like that. Deny it as you wish, but history defends my poster.
