General HavocBut in multiplayer of RA1 Tanya was soviet and also Allied for balancing issues i think. I think maybe Tanya's could be available to both sides in Ren Alert. If not then i suggest having Tanya as Allied and then Stavros (don't know if i spelt it correct) as Soviet with an equal weapon to Tanya. This way would make more sense.

_General Havoc

Stavros was a weenie...not to mention Allied as well. :rolleyes:
