That's not what you said. What you did say was "Well then if you don't have anything good to say, maybe you shouldn't say it at all" which is completely different than what you just tried to turn the thread into.

Do you see why I'm calling you stupid? You can't keep on a single subject, you swich around and play smoke-and-mirrors to try to get me to bite on a subject that you think you've got more ability to debate in. When I point out that you're stupid for being hypocritical, you then call me stupid for saying you were (That's a really good counter-insult there...) and try to change the meaning of what you just said into something so completely different that it has no relevance to anyone but you.

Dumbass...
