I just want people to stop flaming Reborn. I'm trying to stay independent here. I am trying to get you to stop being an asshole to the Reborn team. Everything that the Reborn team posts, you think that it is 'crap' or 'shit' or 'looks like concrete'. If Reborn has lost their chance for you giving them constructful criticism, calling their models 'shit' or saying that it 'looks like concrete' doesn't help anybody.

Quote:You can't keep on a single subject, you swich around and play smoke-and-mirrors to try to get me to bite on a subject that you think you've got more ability to debate in.

Honestly, I wasn't trying to change the subject. It just went that way. I just want everybody to shut up and stop being assholes.

Just for a minute ACK, pretend that you are on the Reborn team. Just look at yourself from their point of view.
