I think that's the crux of the argument, the ramjet is not a specialized weapon like everything else. It's good at too much stuff to make the game fair. If I get close to a Deadeye/Blackhand with a Patch, it's an even contest. It's not like that vs. a ramjet. Personally, I think the damage vs. vehicles should be scaled back, not much but make it take 2 whole clips to kill an orca.
