It comes from Renegade. Praytell, why should I "get a life" when I'm already living and am quite happy with where I live, how I live, and what I do? Or is that just your way of trying to look as if you've got some kind of implied social activities in your life beyond school, as though they had any bearing whatsoever on the Internet; and more specifically on this forum?

The reason why I posted that quote was to show you that you shouldn't be attacking others simply because you're a hypocritical idiot who doesn't know the first thing about a discussion with another human being on the Internet or how to prevent yourself from contradictions in each of your posts.

So, when you attack me, it just goes to show that you're still an idiot regardless of what you say. So, instead of worrying about my personality, social life, whatever else you can come up with... Try worrying about yourself and why it is that whenever you say something, you look like a total fucking retard.

It would help. But then again, it is you that I'm talking about here... I'm not going to expect much more than another reply full of spelling errors, contradictions, and overall idiocy.

Thanks for the laugh. It's good to laugh at something other than using this pathetic 56k modem until the line technician fixes my DSL line tomorrow.
