Quote:1) Ok, westwood didn't give any permissions to ack about using the renegade models ( the unused assets ).

You cannot prove that. I know for a fact that Louis Castle, co-founder of WS, authorized me to get the assets I wanted from them. Otherwise I wouldn't have gotten them. I distinctly recall two important artists telling me "The company doesn't just let us throw this stuff around, we need to get you permission first, so wait until tomorrow and we'll see what he says."

Quote:2) Ack tried to make Kalle Bowo, Permagrín and Sanada leaving Reborn. He failed. ( afraid of their knowledge ? They are for sure better artists than you. )

The latter two say they're leaving anyway. The first is a TS worshipping, brainless moron. He would worship a fucking toilet bowl with the TS logo slapped on it. Definitely not someone I want working on my team.

Quote:3) Ack lick ass of our team members to get some informations. Everytime he does it, my team reports it.

If by "licking ass" you mean "bribery and deception" then sure!

RA is like the United States rolling into Baghdad, and Retardin, the Iraqi information minister, is screaming "THE AMERICANS ARE LYING! THERE ARE NO AMERICANS IN BAGHDAD! IT IS ALL PROPAGANDA!!"

Quote:ya see, no matter what it is if you give ACK a suggestion, he won't listen to it or even look and see if it could be helpful, he's right were all wrong thats the way it is in his tiny o so tiny little world.

"BOY, DO NOT ASSUME! IT MAKES AN ASS OF YOURSELF! WHAT YOU THINK YOU KNOW IS A COMPLETELY DIFFERENT REALITY THAN WHAT YOU REALLY KNOW, SHIT-FOR-BRAINS!"

In other words, you don't pay attention and you think your misguided view of me is reality. If I didn't listen to anyone, if I didn't take suggestions, and whatever else your dumb self believes - that would go against my philosophy in life completely. I work to improve myself, not to get my ass kissed.

Quote:Theres no sense in constintly arguing with him, he wants attention and your all giving it to him if we'd all just inorge his comments / post that are flaming reborn and every other damn thing in the world he probably would shut up just a tad.

You're right for once, there is no sense in constantly arguing with me... Because you're constantly wrong. Attention has nothing to do with it. If you were actually right for once in your fucking life I wouldn't need to respond. Go back to school and stop wasting my tax dollars.
