CrimsonHowever, what I can tell you is that we don't, by default, get an alert if you launch RenGuard with disallowed files and get disconnected. We only see alerts when someone tries to drop the files into the data directory mid-game. Interpret that how you will, but Renardin DID in fact drop the models in after he connected to the server in an attempt, I assume, to fool RenGuard, which obviously failed miserably. He was not, however, kicked for objects.ddb. That was a deliberate falsification.

I added that not mid-game...

I can explain : I started Renegade with GSA. So Renguard open, but I have to click Renegade to start the game. And I told myself, it would be cool to use my modified first person view spas instead of the renegade shotgun, just because I like my model, so I added the file to data folder and then clicked 'Renegade'. When renguard checked files again some seconds after, it kicked me...
