Sorry you cant seem to get past such trivial subjects as a mod. Im sure it makes your day when you tell someone new, "Reborn sucks." My point of moving on though still stands. You know, I know, we all know, whatever. I also know peoples minds cannot be change by the magical wave of my hand. So I now leave you in your debate over social commies or whatever it has turned into. As long as you are having fun, I guess that is all that matters.

Notice I stopped calling you names or bashing things I dont like in RenAlert. I have moved on. Things do grow old. I cant even begin to vount how many times you have beatin this dead horse.
