suntarAircraftkillerYou're an idiot suntar. You know nothing about balance, fair play, intelligence, honor, or knowing how to play a C&C game.

Yes, this is C&C. Not reality. Don't use real life as a justification for you wanting to leave a problematic, broken game the way it is.

why am i an idiot? I find this funny because you concluded on that off of, what, two posts?

dear goodness, just leave the game bee, stop trying to play god in the C&C world by chaging things your and YOUR friends think is fair.

I would like things changed to be like C&C, so they will be fair. Renegade is not fair. If you believe it is, I call you an idiot because you lack the mental ability to figure out the large imbalance problems in the game.

Hum-vees were never meant to enter structures. I should know - I was part of the development team. If we wanted you to enter structures, why were the vehicle blocking polygons added on flying levels? Dumbass.
