When you read this topic, You can really notice the difference between people who live in the U.S.A and those who live in Europe. I live in Holland (yes, that lies in Europe too). The government out here is crappy though. With their ideas. Infact, The working man pay's for their mistakes. And I kinda see the same things in the U.S.A. Bush. I don't understand why people vote om him again. It's a nice shit he's making out there in Iraq.
