I was playing Basin on a lan game. By mistake, on 1 of the computers I didnt install the new scripts.dll..... Now me and my bro (on other pc) were in the same building, the nod CY. I went down the ramp to the second level and i told him to follow. But oddly because the scripts were not on both computers, one of us saw a ramp that lead to the lower level, on the other computer there was no ramp but there was a elevator.

What the crap?
