And it's mature to come on a forum and whine about someone who does what you're whining about? It's mature to pretend it's okay for said "mod workers" to lie, cheat, and deceive this community? It doesn't matter if they promise things they can't deliver, because you say so?

You don't know what maturity is, even if the word is subjective.

Glyde, you're a stupid newbie. I doubt you've been here for the entire time that it took to see how much Reborn sucked shit through a straw... oh wait, it's still blatantly obvious right now just by looking at them.
