icedog90... if you look hard enough...

SuperFlyingEngilf you look closely at the paint

Honestly, how closely do you plan on concentrating on this structure in game? I'd personally be too busy actually playing the game to be so anal about such things that you wouldn't even notice if it wasn't pictured by itself... Seriously.

Quote:Oh damn, sorry guys! I couldn't help defend the barracks because I was too busy looking at the paint on top of the turret here.
