dragonade just adds retarded stuff like weather, animations and a bunch of junk that just eats up fps... sure the look nice but I rather play with faster frame rates

You may call it retarded, but I find it enjoyable. And I don't have any FPS problems, I keep my system well calibrated and uptodate with the best stuff.

But either way that 'weather; and 'animations' are alot more enjoyable then a bunch of useless sounds and a silly font.

ya the silly fonts and other stuff are kinda stupid, but in multiplayer, PERFORMANCE > all other things This is why westwood originally made multiplayer destruction animations faster then single player e.t.c.

also the sounds are useless.

the only thing I really like is the emoticons, however I wish they add more...

e.g. the building icon alwasy shows ref, it would be nice to have a power plant, weaps e.t.c.
