j_ball430It's the whole Reborn mindset. If you don't like it and you voice your opinion, you're automatically against it.

icedog90I might ask, why does everyone keep automatically thinking I'm bashing? Revive the part where I bashed your level.

"Bashing" may not be the correct word, but it's just lighting on a level. If you don't like it, don't play it. That's the end of this pointless issue.
