= [DT=gbull=[L]=]omg, just cuz u dont agree with something someone says does not mean you have to hate them, i dont hate AirCraftKiller, but we dont always agree on some things. and if he thinks reborn sucks then he has the right to say it over and over again, although that doesnt mean you have to. Some of you people take it into obsession to hate this guy, leave it alone already.

Out of all the people here, I'm probably one of the people that has.. ah.. "every right" to hate him.
