j_ball430I do, however, find it funny that you completely ignored my comment about me respecting you. Why is that? Is there a reason for me to NOT respect you?

I don't much care whether I am respected by someone I've never heard of, that's why I ignored it. How much do you actually know about me? Not much, I'm guessing. But you respect me? Why's that then?

j_ball430I never said I was well respected, but I sure as hell am more respected than he is on these forums. Whether or not I'm more respected than you and others is not the point.

What do you want, a biscuit? If BiGPooLoG has made a post saying "OMG I DEMAND YOU ALL RESPECT ME", I haven't seen it. I'm still confused as to why you jumped on him about "forum veterans", but we can chalk that down to being "tired" if you really want.

j_ball430We all know you've been here for a long time. I'm not just looking at the member number or amount of posts you have. Notice how I said "amount of time"

Like I said, not that long. Not as long as BiGPooLoG, that's for sure. But maybe he just doesn't post on this forum?

j_ball430Nowhere in my statement did I address member number or number of posts. Stop trying to say what I mean, because you obviously don't know.

I do apologise. I don't know where I could've gotten the idea that you judged "forum veterancy" by post count or registration date.

j_ball430I've done my fair share of spamming.

Yes, I think we can agree on that.

j_ball430You don't know me.

You flamed BiGPooLoG because you didn't know him. See the gaping flaw?

j_ball430I may not be the smartest person

No shit.

j_ball430Now you're God, eh?

I was actually worshipped as a god once, but that was nothing to do with Renegade. I guess they'd never seen a white person before.

j_ball430So just because you THINK you KNOW that I'm irrational then it automatically is? Yeah, who's thinking he's the better person now? :rolleyes:

You haven't given me a reason to think otherwise yet.

j_ball430You don't address any of my valid points.

For you to say that would be akin to me saying "You can't shoot down my helicopter!" I don't have a helicopter, therefore you cannot shoot down what does not exist. See what I'm getting at?

j_ball430While you don't seem to think I have many, you must agree that I have more than you've attempted to debunk.

For me to agree that would be to agree that black is white.

j_ball430 Again, why is it that you think you're God?

I may as well ask "Why is it you think you're from Saturn?" Have you given any indication that you believe you are from Saturn? no... Have I given any indication that I think I'm God? no....
