Quote:Right... why don't you come up with another lame excuse to dodge? I think I've heard this one before.

One word pretty much sums this one up: wow?

Add me to MSN: blkshrt06@aol.com, that's the easiest way to set up a game, contrary to the popular belief of you gayspy nubs.

Tell ya what, if you want it to get set up in a forum so bad, add me on MSN, set it up, and then YOU make a post in your precious forum so your rockin' clan mates know when to play.

Or you could just do it the westwood way and say, "Hey, how many do you have on right now? Four? Okay, how bout a 4v4?"

But I'm sure that's too much for you to handle.
