We were playing a 3v3 clanner on GDI-GT's renguard server (not against GDI-GT). Near the start of the game we see this

Is this what Renguard actually says when a player has something in his data folder which shouldn't be there?

The reason I ask is because GDI-GT kinda have a habit of kicking people when they're losing clan games, and it occurred to me this might've just been a joke by server admin.
