Hey All!

For those who have heard about the new Xmas map I am making, named Snowfight2004 (to follow the 2003 version).

Yes, name says it all doesn't it?

You are there in the battle field, Glacier mountains, nothing but Ice & snow battling for ownership of the area.

In the 2004 version you will see no WW buildings, only some basic, but cool custom ones.

You will encounter some of the fanmade & never added vehicles, such as the E3 Flame Tank, E3 Recon, HumTOW, HoverMRLS, RA2/Ren2 Mirage Tank as well as the current Ren Vehicles (mammy is now stealth just for fun)

Enough of the full description because I got to get to bed in like a minute, but..

I am posting this to ask if any member of the Ren Community would be willing to provide Snowfight2004 a place to sit in their webspace?

The more hosts there are, the quicker the word will spread and people will download the map out of fun (which is what it is). If ya get my drift...

For those of you would like a sneek peak before its release, check out this video I made not so long back in WMM2. I'm no expert in Video creation, but I hope you'll enjoy watching it. Also, ignore the Eastenders theme tun when all goes quite at the beginning, FRAPS somehow picked up on the microphone and recorded that aswell as the in game sounds

So if you can host it, email me at webmaster@conquerworld.co.uk

Please note that it isn't released YET, but the BETA for my testers will be this week

Many Thanks,

Andy.
