i dunno my thing is i see mad diff forums..

but most dont even get used..

i mean thats kinda what the general forum is for..
any thing and every thing right?

most of my exp no one ever really post anywhere else but i mean if its an

Offtopic and a renegade only topic..(replacing the general)
then id think it would work

most forums i just bookmark the main forum anyways.. so i never ever see the other forum type topic areas like tech support and all that
