Aircraftkiller i hope i really hope your not trying to be as you often come out seeming. But really its time to give it a break so what if its not exactly like C&C as i think it has been pointed out It is not C&C its renegade. Its not ment to be a fps clone of C&C its ment to be its own game. Yes its old yes by todays standares it sucks effects wise and there are some balance problems. But we still want to play it and to be honest thats not your problem. So just give up if we want to play and outdated game thats for us to decided but you dont need to come ranting and raveing about the problems all the time.
