Some of you know that i have started to upload my models to ModX, but i don't seem to be getting feedback.

Now im not sure if i carry on uploading the models if no-one use's them, and if you are using them how am i meant to know, i don't get any feedback saying your using them?

please vote in this poll <http://modx.renevo.com/showthread.php?s=&threadid=198>. The results of this poll will determine weather i will upload the other 26 models i have on my hard disk. These models are guns, buildings, vehicles and misc items.

Please vote
